

From the Desk of Father Peter

Nothing is Too Big for God

If you were to read the editorial page of any newspaper in the country today, one would find a variety of opinions about many issues. Not everyone thinks the same way. The various opinions usually depend on the culture, religious traditions or politics of the people in an area. The same can be said about us Christians; we represent diverse groups of people. While we are many people, we represent diverse groups of people. While we are many people, we are all one in Christ. However, as with us Christians, there are different spiritual ways to arrive at the place God wants us to be. Remember like reading editorials, every day we are free to choose the attitude we will bring to that as Christians. This story that someone told me about years ago is a blessing and a lesson for all of us.

Sometimes, we throw back the big plans, big dreams, big jobs, great opportunities that God gives us. Our faith is too small. How ready are we to increase the size of our faith? What specific effort do we take in that direction? How is our Church important to us in our every day outlook of things? How do we grow in the faith? We should not be afraid to be open and vulnerable to the Holy Spirit working in us. If we do, we will see God's power more clearly and readily invite him into our heart. Each of us is called to be a disciple of encouraging words. Each of us is called to be a disciple of prayer. Each of us is called to be a disciple of charity, willfully giving of our time, talents and treasure to support the Church. Each of us is called to be a disciple of welcome to the holy people who come to us, who are sent by God to lead, challenge and call the world to Christ. In the daily demands of living, it is easy to become so involved in completing and achieving and succeeding that we forget to look around to see how we can serve one another. But it is in the ordinary, everyday events of life that we can help make the kingdom of God present. One thing that everybody in the world wants and needs is friendliness. These things that Christ taught us; care for each other, the poor and the sick, reach out to forgive one another; share the Good News of Jesus with others in our words and deeds. This is how we make the kingdom present. It is by our work and support that we, ourselves, are active and vibrant in the ministry of the Church. Whether it's a problem or a possibility, God will never give us anything bigger than we can handle. That means we can confidently walk into anything God brings our way.

May God Bless Us All,

Fr. Peter Enyan-Boadu

We can do all things through Christ Philippians 3:13

Nothing is too big for God!