PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT
As disciples of Jesus Christ serving on the Parish Pastoral Council, we collaborate with the Pastor and Staff inviting the people of St. John the Evangelist Church to joyfully celebrate the Eucharist, faithfully teach Catholic tradition, and fervently form Catholic spirituality, so that together we may go forth in love to serve the Lord and each other.

They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" - Lk 24:33-34

Welcome!

If you are new in the parish, we invite you to become a member of our faith community where we come together to worship the Lord and celebrate the Eucharist. We want to get to know you so if you will please introduce yourself after Mass, we will be grateful. Please know that your prayers, your presence, and support of our beloved St. John's Church are appreciated. Please call or e-mail the Parish Office for registration assistance. You will find contact information on the front cover of the bulletin.

This is the Springtime of Prayer and Grace

God's love is a transforming love and it must change and renew us as the springtime of grace unfolds. It is a time when we prune our flowers of faith and make it grow in service to one another. To encourage our children and relatives to have faith in Jesus is the best answer to life's uncertainties.

Faith in Jesus surmounts our trials and hardships. Faith calls for a complete conversion of our values. Sometimes we have flashbacks in our life with the Lord. A line of Scripture may leap out at us and our hearts thrill as we remember how that very word came alive to us at an earlier time. When such moments do occur we look around and remember earlier gatherings or the scenario where it took place. Perhaps, thoughts of sadness may come to mind because a loved one has gone to heaven. We may even think of how a friend or relative suffered and remember how God has healed or brought us through a dark valley. It is good to remember what God has done for us in the past but let us not limit him. Let us open our hearts to the present and the future possibilities of his grace in prayer, remembering how God's love for us endures forever.

Cleopas and another disciple were heading home sad because Jesus had been crucified. They did not recognize Jesus as he walked with them along the way. Then at dinner, when Jesus blessed and broke the bread, "their eyes were opened and they recognized him." Luke 24:31. Over and over we hear of people who have stopped going to Mass because they don't feel they get anything out of it. Often, however, this happens when the outer "form" of the Mass—the quality of the music, the appearance of the Church, the homily and the various words and gestures of the liturgy—become more important than the inner "substance" of what is actually going on. The Liturgy is the celebration of our lives in Christ.

Form is when we say, "I confess." Substance is our experience of God washing us clean. Form is the lector proclaiming the readings. Substance is God's Word coming alive in our hearts. In short, form focuses on what we do but substance focuses on who we are meeting, the Lord.

Soon the month of May will be upon us, a time dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. May we pray the Rosary and through doing so, may Mary draw us closer to her Son and let us thank God for the wonders of His love.

With peace and love to all,

Father Peter

Many Thanks to Pass Along

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the Knights of Columbus Council 3892, (represented by men of St. John's, St. Charles, and Our Mother of Sorrows parishes), together with parishioners of our beloved St. John's, for their many hours of dedicated service during the Lenten Fish Frys. I know many were here week in and week out to bring each week's dinners to successful fruition. The word was definitely out that our Fish Fry is "SO DELICIOUS" and this is why we drew in record numbers with 1,377 meals prepared for dine-in and take-out. I understand the Knights reached out to some of the surrounding parish Youth Groups and we had youth and some of their parents from St. Charles and Our Mother of Sorrows parishes who were here to help with a variety of tasks and this really helped things run more efficiently. Lastly, let me thank everyone who supported our Fish Fry as a customer; our St. John's parishioners, those in our parish neighborhood and those from other parishes and throughout the community. What a tremendous group effort and please know of my appreciation to ALL who took part in one way or another. Until next Lent, rest up!

God bless,

Fr. Peter

Pastoral Planning: Sharing Our Reality—Priests Serving Locally

Our 7 parishes currently are served by the following 7 diocesan priests appointed by the Bishop:

5 Pastors—Fr. William Coffas (Holy Cross/Our Mother of Sorrows), Fr. John Firpo (St. Charles Borromeo), Fr. Peter Enyan-Boadu (St. John the Evangelist), Fr. Lee Chase (St. Lawrence), and Fr. Joseph Catanise (St. Leo the Great) and 2 Parochial Vicars—Fr. Joseph Martuscello (HC/OMOS) and Fr. Louis Sirianni (St. Mark). We are fortunate to have Fr. Robert Ring in residence (St. Leo) and 3 Senior Priests in residence: Fr. Robert Schrader (HC/OMOS), Fr. Pius Pathmarajah (St. Charles), and Fr. James Hewes (St. Mark). Lastly, Carmelite Fathers assist occasionally at St. Lawrence and St. Leo.

Sunday, April 23 3rd Sunday of EasterFirst Reading Acts 2:14, 22-33

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it.

For David says of him:

I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.

"My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

Responsorial Psalm Ps 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge;
I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you."
O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

I bless the LORD who counsels me;
even in the night my heart exhorts me.
I set the LORD ever before me;
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices,
my body, too, abides in confidence;
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

You will show me the path to life,
abounding joy in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.*Second Reading 1 Pt 1:17-21

Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb.

He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

Alleluia Cf. Lk 24:32R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us;
make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.*Gospel Lk 24:13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over.” So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?” So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, “The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!” Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

May Crowning
Sunday, May 7
at 10:00 AM Mass

The May Crowning Ceremony will take place Sunday, May 7 at the 10:00 AM Mass. This is a special devotion to our Blessed Mother celebrating Mary as a Queen because she was the perfect follower of Jesus Christ and the absolute ‘crown’ of creation. Members of our Fatima Women’s Prayer Ministry along with any children at Mass will honor our Blessed Mother.

“Accept the Risen Jesus into your life. Even if you have been far away, take a small step towards him: he awaits you with open arms.”

- Pope Francis
