In the Footsteps of St John

A journey of exploration and reflection upon the treasure who is the patron of our parish church, St John the Evangelist.

"People will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." - Lk 13:29-30

Welcome!

If you are new in the parish, we invite you to become a member of our faith community where we come together to worship the Lord and celebrate the Eucharist. We want to get to know you and recognize there are some challenges in doing so during Covid-19, however, if you can introduce yourself after Mass, we will be grateful. Please know that your prayers, your presence, and support of our beloved St. John's Church are appreciated. Please call or e-mail the Parish Office for registration assistance. You will find contact information on the front cover of the bulletin.

God Can Do Wonders in Our Lives Because We Believe

Faith is a simple word, yet it contains a powerhouse of potential for our happiness and even our survival as people. Faith cannot be scientifically measured or quantified; yet we know it exists. Countless people throughout time have witnessed to the importance of faith in their lives. Some have taken their faith to the limits of martyrdom because of what they believed. For most of us, our faith sustains us in the daily routine of life. For others, faith is the driving force that carries us through our most difficult times.

St Paul wrote: "If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." Romans 10:9. The creed we recite every Sunday at Mass is our statement of faith. So, we can trust that salvation is ours as we "confess" this creed and place our faith and trust in the truths that this creed announces.

St Augustine said God created us without our help, but he will not save us without our help. While Jesus' death and resurrection have brought about redemption, we will have a role to play in letting that redemption penetrate our hearts and minds.

Jesus tells us we cannot serve two masters. If we try to serve two masters, we will either hate the one and love the other, or we will be devoted to the one and despise the other. Matthew 6:24.

Placing this teaching within the context of our lives, most of us probably have several masters we are trying to serve. These include trying to serve the Lord while seeking to grow wealthy or seeking to serve the Lord while trying to gain the love and approval of others. The way to help ensure that our lives and hearts are truly focused on serving the Master, the Lord our God who promotes our greatest good, is through prayer and reflection. That is right—good old-fashioned prayer and reflection. This means that we need to clear away the clutter and perhaps shut off our cell phone, television, and computers so we can make time to pray each and every day.

It can be easy to forget that we depend on God's mercy for every breath we take. Every good attribute we have is a gift from His generous hand. It can be easy to think that Jesus "owes" us a favor because of our faithfulness, but in reality, we owe Him for everything we are and everything we have. He is our Savior, not our business partner; He is our Lord, not our next door neighbor. Connected to the Lord Jesus in faith, we really can move mountains!

May we pray to serve our God and God alone, and not rely solely on material things that do not endure forever.

*Peace and love to all,
Father Peter*

Last Call for Back to School Collection Drop Off Your Donation by NEXT Sunday, Aug 31

It's that time of year again when many begin their preparation for their children returning to school and we know part of this preparation is gathering school supplies. This can be a challenge for many families, especially those with multiple children and in light of the higher cost for everything. We all want our children to be well-equipped with the supplies necessary so they can start off on the right foot as they begin a new school year; so we turn to you, our parishioners, who have so generously supported this collection in the past. The supplies we collect will be distributed to Mrs. Rhonda Neal, Principal of Nazareth Elementary School, for the benefit of the children of Nazareth Elementary.

You will find the collection bins for the supplies in the narthex of church by the center doors and the two far end doors between Sunday, August 17 and August 31. We thank you in advance for the support of this annual project.

Coming Soon, Save the Date!

Before long we will be resuming our monthly Coffee Hours. Our first one of the new season will be Sunday, September 14 following the 8:00 and 10:00 AM Masses. Our host will be members of our Parish Pastoral Council.

Mark your calendar so you can plan to join us.

ST. MONICA &
ST. AUGUSTINE
MOTHER & SON

Holiness Runs in the Family

Raising faithful children is no easy task. For St. Monica, it seemed nearly impossible. Her husband wasn't Christian and often mocked her faith. Their son, Augustine, fell quickly into wild ways. He and his friends drank, stole, and caroused throughout town. Monica never stopped praying for Augustine, no matter how far he strayed. Augustine became swept up in heresy, a false form of Christianity. He lived with a mistress and had a child out of wedlock. All the while, Monica kept praying. Conversion came slowly to Augustine, but at age 32, he was finally baptized. Augustine would go on to become a priest, then bishop, then world-renowned theologian whose works have stood the test of time. May St. Monica and St. Augustine inspire us to never stop praying for our loved ones. ©LPi

Dear Music Ministry and Parish Family,

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C)

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last."

Luke 13:30

In essence, this verse encourages believers to examine their own lives, to seek God's will with humility, and to strive for holiness, recognizing that God's judgment is based on individual faithfulness and not on social standing or perceived privilege. It requires a sincere commitment to living a life of faith and a conscious choice to turn away from sin and worldly desires. The challenges and sacrifices involved in following Christ are opportunities for endurance in our faithfulness and for us to embrace the path of discipleship.

Let us sing our Communion hymn: "Open my eyes, Lord"...

Bridge:

And the first shall be last. And our eyes are opened. And we'll hear like never before. And we'll speak in new ways. And we'll see God's face in places we've never known.

Faith and love,

Consuelo

Gospel Meditation

August 24, 2025

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 13:22-30

I've been hiking Camelback Mountain in Phoenix, Arizona most of my life. It is a vigorous forty-five minutes to the top. Near the peak, the end suddenly appears much further away, and steeper. At that moment, a descending hiker often offers encouragement: "Keep going! The peak is right there. It's not as far as it looks. You can do it!" It usually works. After another five minute push, you summit and enjoy a glorious panorama of the Sonoran Desert in the Valley of the Sun.

When Jesus is asked about how many people are saved, he says: "Strive to enter through the narrow gate" Luke 13:24. How many? Strive! Focus on your journey. What does heavenly census taking have to do with you or me? How would it help a hiker on a mountain to ask the others coming down, "How many people are going to make it to the top?" A normal response would be something like: "How is that a relevant question? Carry on!"

Jesus links one virtue directly to salvation: perseverance cf. Matt 24:13; hypomone in Greek. Strive! Endure!

Keep going! The one absolutely necessary virtue is perseverance, to not give up on our journey. The mountain we struggle to climb is often our own weakness, failures, and sins. Persevere in prayer. Keep celebrating the sacraments. Embrace daily duties. With God's grace, you are strong enough to keep going. Perhaps the peak is not as far away as you might fear. Keep going!

Do You Know Him, or Just Know About Him?

Facebook, Twitter, and other forms of social media can be powerful tools of communication. They allow people to stay in touch. They provide an avenue for fresh ideas. People can be engaged in conversations and be exposed to issues of the day in ways few could have dreamed of just a few decades ago. But social media can also give the false sense of really knowing someone, when only the surface has been scratched about who a person is in reality.

You don't really know someone just because you know a lot about him or her and are linked to a profile online.

...seemingly close, but with no real relationship at all.

Unfortunately, people develop emotional attachments to the idea of a person all the time. If they do find themselves fortunate enough to meet the person face-to-face one day, they can often find out they never really knew the person in the first place.

There are people who believe they know Jesus so very well. They can readily share their view of what Jesus would do or wouldn't do in a given situation. They own items like crosses and Bibles that seem to provide evidence of this person they know so well. Sometimes, they even strongly admonish others because their view of Jesus is certainly not in line with their own.

But in Luke 13, Jesus speaks about those who claim to know him, but they really do not belong to him at all. They make claims based upon what they have seen and heard, but they have never allowed Jesus to truly change them. They are like Facebook followers; seemingly close, but with no real relationship at all.

Do you know Jesus? Don't just be a fan. Invite Jesus into your life and let the real relationship begin.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPI

*Good Shepherd, guide me through the narrow gate.
Remove from me anything that distracts me from
You, Your love, Your invitation, Your mission.
Keep me close to You, familiar at every step.*

Amen. ©LPI

THIS Friday, August 29, the Church commemorates one of the oldest feasts within the Church, the Memorial of the Beheading of Saint John the Baptist. Just as John preceded Jesus in birth, preaching, and baptizing, so too did he precede Jesus in death, dying as a prefiguration of the one who would give His life sacrificially on the Cross.

As we honor this man so highly honored by our Lord, we also honor our Lord Himself. John's life was given to the mission to which he was called. He never wavered and willingly accepted even death, rather than shy away from God's will. He introduced the Lamb of God to the world and led the way for Jesus by his preaching, baptism of repentance, and death, which prefigured Jesus' own death. As you ponder Saint John's life, reflect especially upon the wholehearted commitment he made to selflessly give himself to the mission he received. Where you see hesitancy in your own life, take inspiration from Saint John the Baptist, praying that you will exemplify his courage and resolve to fulfill the will of God.

Saint John the Baptist, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.

Online Giving

You can make your weekly, monthly, annual and one-time donations from your checking or savings account, or by using a credit or debit card, electronically, from your own computer. It is easy, safe and secure! A link to Online Giving can be found at our Parish Home Page www.stjohngreece.org.

Don't hesitate to contact the Parish Office, 225-8980 for details or assistance with Online Giving.

A World of Gratitude!

Having recently received Fr. Augustine Kipkemei of the Catholic Diocese of Nakuru in Kenya with a warm welcome from all of us here at our beloved St. John's, I wish to thank you so much for the very generous donations you made to help the people in need in the Diocese of Nakuru. As you probably saw in last week-end's bulletin, we collected $5,426.00 for this cause. Way to go! As your Pastor, I am touched by the support you provide each and every time there is a need. As Catholics, this is what we are called to do – help those in need – and you have lived up to this call once again. May God reward you for your kindness and generosity.

God bless, Fr. Peter
