PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT
As disciples of Jesus Christ serving on the Parish Pastoral Council, we collaborate with the Pastor and Staff inviting the people of St. John the Evangelist Church to joyfully celebrate the Eucharist, faithfully teach Catholic tradition, and fervently form Catholic spirituality, so that together we may go forth in love to serve the Lord and each other.

"This is the one about whom it is written: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you." - Mt 11:10

Welcome!

If you are new in the parish, we invite you to become a member of our faith community where we come together to worship the Lord and celebrate the Eucharist. We want to get to know you so if you will please introduce yourself after Mass, we will be grateful. Please know that your prayers, your presence, and support of our beloved St. John's Church are appreciated. Please call or e-mail the Parish Office for registration assistance. You will find contact information on the front cover of the bulletin.

The Coming of the Lord Jesus

We continue the season of Advent and a new year in the Church's calendar. Some religious traditions like the Jesse tree and the Advent wreath that we see in church or have in our homes help us to remember the long centuries that the Jewish people of old waited for the coming of the Messiah. By our sharing in the long preparation in any way we can for the Savior's coming, we renew our desire, anticipation, and hope of the Lord's coming again. Advent means "coming." Advent means hope for the future. Advent is a time to be ready and alert, while waiting for our God's bountiful mercies.

What does the Church invite us to do during the season? We are invited to celebrate the plan of salvation by which God called the patriarchs and united them to himself in a covenant of love, which was established through Moses. He raised up the prophets and chose David as the one from whose line the Savior of the world was to be born. The books of the Old Testament, in fore-telling the coming of Christ, "gradually bring into clearer light the figure of a woman, the Mother of the Redeemer" Lumen Gentium no. 55. She is the Blessed Virgin Mary, whom the Church proclaims as the joy of Israel and the noble daughter of Zion. Mary becomes the model of our "yes" to God. Certainly a disposition like

Mary's must be formed in us over time as we turn from sin and place ourselves at the service of God.

There is no need to fear the future. Each one of us can impact the future by living according to our faith teachings. By living out the beliefs of our faith, we prepare for the coming of the Lord at Christmas. I believe that Christ has come to us already at Bethlehem on that first Christmas. I believe he comes to us now, every day in such mysterious ways, as in prayer, grace, word and sacrament. I believe, like you do too, that there is yet another coming at the end of time, as judge of the living and the dead. This is the reason why we should contemplate the Lord's coming as a blessed season filled with faith, hope, joy, and peace.

We should be able to share our faith and tradition with those around us. We live in a noisy world, don't we? Cell phones, television, radio, emails, text messages, web pages—the stream is unending. And not only is it noisy, it is distracting. By living the spirit of Advent, we can encounter Jesus, who can transform us. No matter how embedded we are in our sins, if we look to Jesus, forgiveness is possible. In turn, we become stronger in our faith as we prepare for God's kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.

Blessing and peace to all.

Father Peter

Kindness and Generosity Abounds!

As is our longstanding tradition here at St. John's each Thanksgiving, we take a collection of non-perishable food items and paper products for those in need served through The Greece Ecumenical Food Shelf.

I extend a sincere thank you to each of you who donated items for this special collection as well as those who provided monetary donations. Together we collected 284 lbs. of food items and the monetary donations totaled $671. A check from St. John's for this monetary donation has been mailed to The Greece Ecumenical Food Shelf. A special thank you goes to Bill and Sandy Smith who loaded their car with the goods and presented, on behalf of St. John the Evangelist Church, Greece, NY, our Thanksgiving donations.

May our good and gracious God reward you for your kindness and generosity and bless you abundantly. In gratitude, Fr. Peter

Sunday, December 18
 11:00 AM Coffee Hour with Santa in Parish Center

*O Virgin of Guadalupe, Mother of the Americas, grant to our homes the grace of loving
 and respecting life in its beginnings, with the same love with which you conceived in your womb the life of the Son of God.
 Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Fair Love, protect our families so that they may always be united
 and bless the upbringing of our children.*

*Our hope, look upon us with pity,
 teach us to go continually to Jesus,
 and if we fall help us to rise again and return to Him
 through the confession of our faults
 and our sins in the Sacrament of Penance, which gives peace to the soul.*

*We beg you to grant us a great love of all the holy Sacraments, which are, as it were,
 the signs that your Son left us on earth.
 Thus, Most Holy Mother,
 with the peace of God in our consciences,
 with our hearts free from evil and hatred,
 we will be able to bring to all others true joy and peace,
 which come to us from your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ,
 who with the Father and the Holy Spirit,
 lives and reigns for ever and ever.*

Amen.

- Pope John Paul II

Sunday, December 11 Third Sunday of AdventFirst Reading Is 35:1-6a, 10

The desert and the parched land will exult; the steppe will rejoice and bloom. They will bloom with abundant flowers, and rejoice with joyful song. The glory of Lebanon will be given to them, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon; they will see the glory of the LORD, the splendor of our God. Strengthen the hands that are feeble, make firm the knees that are weak, say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, he comes with vindication; with divine recompense he comes to save you. Then will the eyes of the blind be opened, the ears of the deaf be cleared; then will the lame leap like a stag, then the tongue of the mute will sing.

Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return and enter Zion singing, crowned with everlasting joy; they will meet with joy and gladness, sorrow and mourning will flee.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10.R. Lord, come and save us.

The LORD God keeps faith forever,
secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry. The LORD sets captives free.

R. Lord, come and save us.

The LORD gives sight to the blind;
the LORD raises up those who were bowed down.
The LORD loves the just; the LORD protects strangers.

R. Lord, come and save us.

The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
but the way of the wicked he thwarts.
The LORD shall reign forever;
your God, O Zion, through all generations.

R. Lord, come and save us.Second Reading Jas 5:7-10

Be patient, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord is at hand. Do not complain, brothers and sisters, about one another, that you may not be judged. Behold, the Judge is standing before the gates. Take as an example of hardship and patience, brothers and sisters, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia Is 61:1 (cited in Lk 4:18)R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.Gospel Mt 11:2-11

When John the Baptist heard in prison of the works of the Christ, he sent his disciples to Jesus with this question, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" Jesus said to them in reply, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them. And blessed is the one who takes no offense at me."

As they were going off, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John, "What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? Then what did you go out to see? Someone dressed in fine clothing? Those who wear fine clothing are in royal palaces. Then why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you.

Amen, I say to you, among those born of women there has been none greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

For those who have already made a pledge/donation, we are very grateful!

As of Tuesday, November 29, 229 households have pledged $47,926 taking us to 56.74% of our $83,000 goal.

Please fill out your envelope, be sure to make your check payable to: CMA and put 039-St John's—Greece in the check memo.

BLESSINGS OF FINANCIAL

Due to early bulletin deadlines for the Advent and Christmas Holidays, our December 3/4 and December 10/11 Mass attendance and contributions will be noted in the December 17/18 bulletin.

Thank you!

With sincere gratitude, Fr. Peter thanks all who continue with their financial assistance in support of the many needs in our parish.

Blessings On Our Newly Baptized

On Saturday, November 26, 2022, we welcomed Serafina Maria Ayzenberg into the Catholic Church here in our faith community of St. John the Evangelist Church, through the Sacrament of Baptism by Fr. Peter Enyan-Boadu. It is our prayer that this time of grace may fortify the journey of faith for Serafina, her parents, and godparents. We look forward to walking this journey with them here at our beloved St. John's.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Eucharistic Revival—Why Now?

Because the Church Needs Healing. And the World Needs the Church.

Scandal, division, disease, doubt. The Church has withstood each of these throughout our very human history. But today we confront all of them, all at once. Our response in this moment is pivotal.

In the midst of these roaring waves, Jesus is present, reminding us that he is more powerful than the storm. He desires to heal, renew, and unify the Church and the world.

How will he do it? By uniting us once again around the source and summit of our faith—the Holy Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is the joyful, expectant, grassroots response of the entire Catholic Church in the U.S. to this divine invitation.

Online Giving

You can make your weekly, monthly, annual and one-time donations from your checking or savings account, or by using a credit or debit card, electronically, from your own computer. We use a product from a company that we have been with for a long time and has a long history of working with parishes around the country. It is easy, safe and secure! A link to Online Giving can be found at our Parish Home Page www.stjohngreece.org.

Don't hesitate to contact the Parish Office, 225-8980 for details or assistance with Online Giving.

Reminder on Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD) (sometimes referred to as "IRA Charitable Rollovers) as a Way to Donate to St. John's Parish

In December, 2015, the IRA QCD Legislation was signed into law permanently.

Under the legislation, donors aged 70½ or older can contribute up to $100,000 from their IRA's directly to qualified charities without having to pay income taxes on the money.

Here is a quick recap of the IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution rules. Gifts qualify under the law if:

- The donor is age 70 ½ or older on the day of the gift.
- The donor transfers up to $100,000 directly from their IRA to one or more qualified charities (i.e. St John's). This opportunity applies only to IRA's and no other types of retirement plans.
- Since a QCD can potentially reduce a donor's Required Minimum Distribution (RMD), please discuss your situation with your Financial Advisor.
- The donor does not receive any goods or services in return for the rollover gift in order to qualify for tax-fee treatment.
- The gift/check must be dated on or before Dec., 31, 2022 to qualify this year.
- The gift needs to be sent directly to the charitable organization which also has to be the payee for the gift.
- The official name and address to use for the receiver of the donation is:

St. John the Evangelist Church
2400 W Ridge Road
Rochester, NY 14626

If you have questions regarding this matter, please contact your financial advisor. If you have other questions, please call or email Joe Spurrier: Business Office at St. John's, at 585-225-8980, or joseph.spurrier@dor.org
