Welcome!

If you are new in the parish, we invite you to become a member of our faith community where we come together to worship the Lord and celebrate the Eucharist. We want to get to know you and recognize there are some challenges in doing so during Covid-19, however, if you can introduce yourself after Mass, we will be grateful. Please know that your prayers, your presence, and support of our beloved St. John's Church are appreciated. Please call or e-mail the Parish Office for registration assistance. You will find contact information on the front cover of the bulletin.

We All Yearn for That which Will Sustain Us

Years ago, in record numbers, people tuned in to watch the television show Survivor. For weeks they were fascinated with each episode. It was centered on a group of people sent to a remote island to do unimaginable things in order to be declared the ultimate survivor. The human spirit was tested to the ultimate limit. With each passing day the participants, along with millions of viewers, weighed the pros and cons of who might be voted off the island. All the effort of the human spirit was at work to be declared the survivor.

We all yearn for that which will sustain us; that which will feed and nourish us; that which will help us to survive. The EUCHARIST, the bread from heaven, must become our daily bread. Prayer, nourishment for our souls, must be a part of our daily lives. Acts of charity, almsgiving, and tithing are ways of sharing God's love with others and helps to keep us on the path to eternal life. The daily challenge we face is in how we survive the trappings of this life so that we may enjoy the rewards of eternal life. What are we willing to do?, what are we willing to sacrifice with our faith intact?

What are we willing to do, what are we willing to sacrifice with our faith intact?

The various aspects of Mass affect our journey of celebrating the rhythms of our life in the Lord. Jesus promised that anyone who comes to him and believes shall never be hungry or thirsty.

As the saying goes, "Most of us will never do great things, but we can do small things in a great way."

Peace and may God bless us all.

Rev. Peter Enyan-Boadu

The Sword and the Family

The inclusion of the Presentation of Christ in the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary has always struck me. The Blessed Mother, just a few weeks after giving birth, standing at the holy temple: Is she tired? Is she emotional? Is she frightened? Is she happy? We cannot know for sure, but if she is anything like most of the postpartum women I know, she is all four. But she stands there dutifully, offering her baby to the Lord, and this is what she is told, “A sword shall pierce your heart.”

But Mary knows that Simeon speaks the truth, and she cannot receive God's will with anything less than joy, even if it means a pierced heart.

Family means love, but love means — what, exactly? Pleasure, fulfillment, contentment? Yes, but so much more, too. Love means you have much to lose.

How full is family life with these beautiful moments which, on the surface, look and feel painful — but hold within them the opportunity to be like Mary, to bow our heads and once again say “Yes, Lord.” ©LPi

World Day for Consecrated Life is a world-wide celebration held on February 2 that coincides with the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus.

On this day, the Catholic Church celebrates the contributions of religious sisters, brothers, and priests—people who “consecrate their life to Jesus.”

What Stays the Same

Somewhere, there is a monk whose life is very quiet and who devotes long hours to prayer. And somewhere there is a nun, cloistered in a life of contemplation, who speaks very little except to God.

Somewhere, there is a father whose days are filled with noise, who hasn't finished a Rosary in years because he keeps falling asleep. Somewhere there is a mother whose voice is weak with giving direction and offering counsel.

Somewhere, there is a teenage girl with much to say, but few people to listen — fewer, at least, than she would like.

Somewhere there is a woman who holds a positive pregnancy test in one hand and a phone in the other, and somewhere there is a man on the other end of that phone who waits for her to speak.

In the Beatitudes, Jesus utilizes a literary device called anaphora. Both as a reader and a writer, I love anaphora. It's a clean, unfussy way to communicate a point. By repeating the same word or phrase at the beginning of successive clauses, you're basically saying the same thing over and over again, just a little bit differently each time. Those small differences tease at your audience's brain, gently highlighting the consistencies.

Discipleship is a lot like anaphora. It's the differences — those little aberrations from person to person, life to life — that so beautifully illustrate what remains the same across the broad spectrum of what it means to live out the Beatitudes.

Me. You. The monk. The nun. The father. The mother. The lonely girl. The man and woman who decided their own future without realizing it. How similar we all are in sin. How similar we all are in potential. How different we look to the world.

And yet, how wondrous it is that we are all offered the same hope: "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in Heaven." ©LPi Virtues, Explained!

In the modern lexicon, the quality of "kindness" is often equated with politeness — but real, virtuous kindness is so much more. Virtuous kindness is a way of seeing others through the eyes of God.

God is not polite — God is kind, and His kindness is abundantly evident in all of creation. It was suspicion of this divine kindness that precipitated the fall of Adam and Eve CCC 214, and it was this unfailing kindness that facilitated our own adoption as God's children, conformed to the image of His son CCC 257.

Also known as benevolence or beneficence and derived from the theological virtue of charity, kindness is a fruit of the Holy Spirit Galatians 5:22 and is a central theme in the famous parable of the Good Samaritan. In practicing kindness and seeking the good of another without prejudice or condition, the Samaritan reflects God's own plan of loving kindness for us. ©LPi

COUPLES Special Valentines Dinner "Holy and Beloved" Friday, February 13, 5:00 PM - Sunday, February 15, Noon with Fr. Jim Dahlinger, SJ; Deb & Keith Northridge and Jodie Scordo

Both a description of who we are and a call to become who God created us to be, "Holy and Beloved" is a retreat to inspire our desire for continued growth in holiness. Following the examples of holy men and women, we seek to clothe ourselves in those qualities that embody a life of virtue.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
