Be Sure to Know and Love Yourself

As we approach the summer season and the heat engine not yet on, there are many things to do. I want us to simply stop, look, and listen as time passes us by and think of ourselves in a special way. We need to develop a love for ourselves as children of God as well as establish a better relationship with our family and church.

We need to live the inner us and keep moving ahead in our prayer life because we can't stand still and improve ourselves at the same time. No matter how imperfect we perceive our shortcomings to be, we need to stop ourselves and learn to love ourselves as we are even though we may not like some of our physical or character traits...that God gave us. If we are not satisfied with certain attributes that we may have, let us develop a program together to change them; that is the reason why God made us. If we do something that we know isn't in our best interest or not at our highest level of thinking, let us acknowledge our mistake, forgive ourselves and move on. As I've said previously, change is inevitable in life but growth in learning from the lessons of change is optional.

We do not have to be too hard on ourselves. We all need a break sometime. We should know that as children of God we are going to make mistakes and even hurt each other's feelings. We need to realize that and grow through them. If we did not make mistakes, we would probably stay at the same level of achievement and our lives would be boring. Besides, there really are no such things as mistakes; they are just learning experiences. Many of us have a stubborn part of our self that says we can take care of any problem we have on our own. However, when things do not go the way we want, we may blame God and feel abandoned. God constantly reveals his love to us and looks for us to show love in return. God knows.

Determine your philosophy but continue to adjust it as time moves along. Be flexible because we must adapt to change. God is in charge, not us. Life can be short so please make an impression as one person in the mosaic plan of God. What I regret most in my life as I age in my priesthood are the failures of kindness I could have shown someone or some other person could have shown me. Sure, problems and pain may still come; yet, in the midst of these we can be confident that Jesus will obtain for us all the resources we need.

Peace to all,
Father Peter

A Song about St. John the Evangelist – The Beloved One

As we celebrate 160 years of our parish founding, Paul Parkman shares with us the lyrics to a special song he received from Heaven about The Beloved One – St. John. These words beautifully portray our Parish Patron Saint. At some point during this anniversary year these lyrics may be put to music for us to enjoy but in the meantime, take a moment to read and enjoy the lyrics.

In the Footsteps of St. John

(Song from Heaven) to Paul Parkman

You were at the Sea of Galilee when Jesus walked along the shore. When you heard Him call your name, John, you knew you wanted more...

You were with Him at the wedding when He turned water into wine. You were there, Beloved St. John, you were with Him all the time.

CHORUS (reprise)

In your footsteps as we follow O St. John, Beloved One, you're still leading us to heaven tho' your life on earth is done. It is true, as saints on earth follow saints that are above, the circle is completed of God's everlasting love.

You were there upon Mt. Tabor on that mountain in the skies when you saw Christ in His Glory, you saw it with your eyes!

You were with Him on Palm Sunday. You spread palms along His way. And in your footsteps, Beloved one you're still leading us today.

CHORUS

You were there at the Last Supper; He gave you His Body and Blood, You were standing at the charcoal fire when evil condemned the Good.

You did not abandon Him as you stood beneath the Cross Your heart was broken as you surveyed the greatness of your loss.

You heard "behold your mother!" You heard "behold your Son!" You heard Him say, "It's finished!", O John, Beloved One

You were there to take Him from the cross amid the circling gloom. You were there, among the grieving, as they laid Him in the tomb.

On that Sundry morn while others doubted you ran fast and got there first. Your hopes were high, your faith was strong; you did not need to be coerced!

The stone rolled back, the empty tomb, this was all you needed to believe. In your heart you knew the truth of the Gospel you'd received.

So we celebrate your footsteps still visible today. With you, St. John, walking close to Jesus; together all the way.

Day of Caring 2025

On Saturday May 10, a number of parishioners participated in our annual "Day of Caring" here at St. John's. Volunteers were divided into "TEAMS" and given a list of things to do in a specific area. As these teams filled up trash barrels, they were picked up by a roving truck and wagon and these barrels were emptied into the dumpster located on the premises. One team trimmed a lot of branches from the North end of our property and the dumpster filled up quickly. One brave soul jumped into the dumpster and stomped it down to free up some more space. The majority of the crew ended their assigned work early and then proceeded to the center circle in front of the Church to do some much-needed weeding. Eventually, we re-grouped in the Parish Center to enjoy a Hot Dog lunch with a pasta salad, watermelon and cookies. Although, we didn't get the entire Campus beautified, we filled the dumpster to the brim and hauled one truckload of branches to the Recycle center. This is an annual event, and it does make a difference to the St. John's property. We look forward to next year and hopefully we can get more volunteers to sign up.

A BIG THANK YOU TO ALL WHO HELPED OUT THIS YEAR!!!!!!

MERCY SPIRITUALITY CENTER

The Best Girls in the World

In the Fall of 1940, a group of Sisters of St. Joseph traveled from Rochester, NY to Selma, AL.

Their mission: to help catechize Black Catholics who had been converted years earlier.

What they found were people living in abject poverty and years of discrimination whose faith had remained strong. The Sisters built a hospital, a nursing home and a school for Black people and soon got caught up in the civil rights movement in ways they never could have imagined.

This is the story of conversion and change that came to one city in the South from 1940 to 2020, a microcosm of a national movement.

Sr. Carol Cimino, who wrote the book, The Best Girls in the World, published in 2022, will share this story with us.

Facilitator: Sr. Carol Cimino, SSJ

Date: Saturday, June 21

Time: 2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Location: Mercy Spirituality Center

Fee: $15

Membership eligible program

*Sister Carol Cimino is a Sister of Saint Joseph of Rochester. She has served in a variety of positions in Catholic education, as teacher, principal, development director, and consultant. She most recently retired as the Superintendent of Schools for the Diocese of Buffalo, New York. In that position she oversaw 50 elementary and high schools in an eight-county area of Western New York State. Sister Carol also is the author of several articles, pamphlets, and two books in addition to The Best Girls in the World.*

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen.
