We Have Been Called and Sent Like Saints Peter and Paul

The Greek word for "church" is ekklesia, which has roots that mean "those who have been called." We, the Church, have been summoned to Christ, called to this place, invited into this special relationship with Saints Peter and Paul, whose solemnity we celebrate this weekend. We remember their courageous response to Christ's call and the mighty ways God worked in and through these Apostles. This Feast Day marks the martyrdom of the two apostles in Rome.

These two Apostles, Peter, the rock, as leader of the apostles, and Paul the great missionary, were sent to evangelize the Gentiles. They both had a mission from Jesus to proclaim the Good News to the end of the world. He gave Peter (and his successors) the key to the kingdom – a sign of authority (papacy) to interpret and spread the Gospel and welcome people into the Christian family of faith we call Church; from the Apostles, to the bishops, to us. We are all called by virtue of our baptism and confirmation to become witnesses to the Church. In our baptism, through Jesus' prayer for us, we are consecrated in the truth and as God the Father sends Jesus, so Jesus sends us – to reveal to the world the love of God.

Paul had a revelation of truth through his encounter with Jesus, which in turn compelled him to testify to what had been revealed. He did so, traveling, teaching, preaching and establishing Churches throughout Asia Minor and Europe.

This weekend, the Church asks for your donation to Peter's Pence. Your offer will be a tangible support as the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, the first American Pope, takes steps in his Petrine ministry. Let us help him proclaim the Gospel to the world and extend a hand to our brothers and sisters in need. "Imitating God means entering into communion with others and building bridges of communion between different people. As difficult as it may be, we still need to build bridges." We as Americans need to do all that we can to support the first American Pope in spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ.

This weekend many priests and deacons take on their new assignments in parishes entrusted to them by the Bishop, Most Reverend Salvatore Matano, and we wish our retired priests Godspeed. To you, my beloved parishioners, as my pastorate continues, I am very grateful to you all, especially for the wonderful response to our Increased Giving Campaign to sustain our parish so that we can grow and march together into the future.

Finally, it shall be recalled that on June 25, 2024, as I marked the first day of my five year pastorate extension by Bishop Matano, I requested through prayer and grace that all of us become actively involved in doing something to uplift our parish in the proclamation of the Good News and the everyday celebration of the Eucharist. I will like to see more people involved in singing, as Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and Ushers, or any other area you might be called. In all senses, I need you to be involved in something. Please let me know if you can, we would love to have you share in our ministry here.

God bless us all.

Prayer for Our Country

Good and gracious Father,
 You created the human race as one human family,
 yet formed a special people for Your own.
 God of Abraham the Patriarch, God of King David,
 watch over our nation!

May our government leaders be blessed with wisdom,
 counsel, and prudent discernment
 in creating just laws for our land.

May all service men and women be protected

May all citizens work together for the common good and the protection of the least among us.

Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, it is in Your coming kingdom that we place our trust.
 Give us the grace here and now to love as you love
 and to serve as you served.

Holy Spirit, inspire us to transform our communities

MARY'S PLACE
REFUGEE OUTREACH
BLOSSOM ON NEW GROUND

June 9, 2025

St John the Evangelist Church

We are very thankful for the donation from you of $1,000. If you have followed national news you are aware that we are entering a period of time when immigration will become greatly reduced in America. Many New Americans are alarmed that changes may block their path to citizenship and that, in the worst case, they could be deported. Whether these fears are real or perceived is yet to be determined, yet they are still in the hearts of refugees and asylum seekers.

Our small team is dedicated to providing housing, case management support and the best legal guidance that we can. Your support enables us to continue our mission. On behalf of the people we serve, a heartfelt thank you.

Best wishes,

Mike Coniff, CEO, Mary's Place Refugee Outreach

Catholic Etiquette

The Importance of Dressing for God, Not the Culture

Every now and then it's good to remind ourselves of some important matters surrounding Catholic etiquette. This is an especially good time after fielding various comments, questions, and concerns from parishioners pertaining to our mode of dress at Mass. Other topics will be addressed as well (in the next bulletin) and no matter the topic, we ask that each of us respectfully and prayerfully reflect and act upon them as they pertain to us individually. We are not here to chastise and condemn but to remind us and guide us along the right path so we grow in holiness and offer all due reverence to our Triune God – God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. At the same time, we ask parents to guide their children.

Dress modestly and appropriately before the Lord. Yes, when one comes to Mass he/she is always in the presence of the Lord. Dressing immodestly can be an issue year-round but moreso in the summer months when the days are warm and sometimes hot. We can probably all agree our society has changed with regard to its attitude on proper attire. While the Catholic Church does not have dogmatic teaching on modest dress, it exhorts us to use common sense. Christ himself has invited us to partake in the sacred banquet of the Eucharist. When it comes to being in the presence of the Lord, reverence should be paramount. Clothing should not be a needless distraction for our brothers and sisters in Christ at Mass; please dress appropriately.

"So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea." John 21:7

Dear Music Ministry and Parish Family,

Catechism insists that part of why we sing during Mass is to be the voice of God and to express our faith and obedience.

I try to listen to you each week and it is wonderful to hear you. Makes me smile and God is smiling with me. There is no reason for us to be afraid to show how much we love Him back. You will be amazed by how we always encounter Jesus when we pray and sing.

Summer is here! Many parish choirs take a break during summer. Here at St. John, cantors begin to lead the congregation and sometimes, if some of our choir members are around, they just come up in the choir loft and sing with us. Wouldn't it be a great idea if we start a

This could be a fun and meaningful experience for you.

"Summer Choir"? Why not! This is an opportunity for parishioners to experience singing in a choir. We meet half an hour before liturgy begins and warm up/rehearse familiar hymns. Just show up and we'll hand you a hymnal. This could be a fun and meaningful experience for you. Come join us at the 10:00 AM Sunday Mass. Share your time, grow in faith, meet new friends, and be a part of our choir family even if it's only for a short time.

An example of a familiar hymn: "Open My Eyes" by Jessie Manibusan

*Open my eyes, Lord. Help me to see Your face.
Open my eyes, Lord. Help me to see.*

*Open my ears, Lord. Help me to hear Your voice.
Open my ears, Lord. Help me to hear.*

*Open my heart, Lord. Help me to love like You.
Open my heart, Lord. Help me to love.*

*I live within You. Deep in Your heart, oh love.
I live within You. Rest now in me.*

Be safe and stay blessed,

Consuelo

STS. PETER & PAUL, APOSTLES

June 29, 2025

Sts. Peter And Paul, Apostles Matthew 16:13-19

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter.

Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

2nd Collection NEXT Weekend, July 5/6

Decades ago, the bishops of the United States established a program to aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe and help it rebuild after decades of communist oppression. The program is funded by an annual collection taken up in dioceses across the United States. That response continues today, even as the rebuilding Church faces the new challenges of war and the mass migration of refugees.
