Did you know? The Feast of Christ the King was instituted in 1925 to address growing attitudes of secularism and atheism and to promote Christ's kingship forever. The day also marks the final Sunday on the Church's Liturgical Calendar.

It Depends on All of Us

We are told or we hear every day, "We can't change the world." But as we see, the world is changing every day before our eyes. The question is...who is doing it? We are, or somebody else is making it happen.

For guidelines, we can look to Jesus Christ himself who is "the way, the truth, and the life." "The Way" of Jesus is based on love and sharing that love. It invites us to have a deep faith and a hopeful future. The theme for this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) is "Go Forth with Christ."

We have all received a letter from Bishop Salvatore Matano asking for our support in this year's CMA. Much of the assistance we receive from Bishop Matano, and all who diligently work at the Pastoral Center, helps to make our support of ministries around the Diocese of Rochester possible. Every dollar received from this year's appeal is used to directly or indirectly fund ministries affecting every Catholic and faith community in our diocese.

Did you know that the poor, the homeless, the troubled battered person, and the addicted are all assisted by the Catholic Charities to whom some of our CMA monies go?

Do you know that jail ministries, hospital and college chaplains are supported by the CMA? We all know the presence of the migrant Hispanic Community in our areas of Wayne, Ontario, and Monroe counties; they are assisted by the CMA money as we try to afford some spiritual nourishment to them. And we have some young men discerning and thinking about the priesthood. They are supported by our CMA money. I was a member of our Diocesan Vocational Awareness Committee, so I know first hand how our generosity helps to shape the future of these men.

As your pastor, I am asking, please take the time and send in your pledge. Remember to write our parish number 039 on your check so we get credit toward our parish goal. In the words of Pope Francis, we are all called to give back to God from the gifts with which he has blessed us. As your pastor, I sincerely thank you for your prayerful consideration in this regard. You then have until May 31, 2024 to complete the payment of your pledge. It depends on all of us. In striving to Go Forth with Christ, let us continue to pray for one another and for our church, as we move forward in faith.

God bless,
Father Peter

Advent Giving Trees

NEXT weekend, December 2/3, our Advent Giving Trees will be up and filled with angels; ready for us to take part in our annual parish spirit of giving.

As we have done the past few years, we have created angels with the different organizations that will receive our gifts of generosity to help them sustain their important ministry work throughout our community. Please take an angel of your choice for you and your family to place your donation into the envelope and return it to St. John's on or before Sunday, December 17. This is a great way to include children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews in the spirit of giving and at the same time learn more about the different organizations and how they help those in need. The following organizations will be supported through our generosity:

Daystar Kids	Mary's Place
Focus Pregnancy	Refugee Outreach
Friendship Center	Families in Need
Nazareth Elementary	at St. John's
House of Mercy	Mother Teresa Missionary
The Margaret Home	Center at Holy Apostles
St. Michael's Woodshop

Please refer to the insert today providing you with information about these organizations.

Jesse Trees in Narthex

This Advent you will find two Jesse Trees on the wall in the narthex, one near each far entrance to church. The Jesse Tree is a way of discovering how God prepared for Jesus to be born by reading through the stories of Jesus's family tree. For each day of December there is a Bible story about someone in Jesus's human ancestry and an ornament with a symbol of that story.

If you would like to decorate your own Jesse Tree at home and read the stories of Jesus's ancestors you may pick up a packet in the narthex that has scripture readings for each day and the symbols which can be colored, cut out, and displayed on your own tree. This is a wonderful way to prepare for Christmas.

Holiness in Peace

Sunday, November 26 Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

First Reading Ez 34:11-12, 15-17

Thus says the Lord GOD:

I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly.

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 23:1-2, 2-3, 5-6

R. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose.

R. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

Beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.
He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.

R. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading 1 Cor 15:20-26, 28

Brothers and sisters:

Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

Alleluia Mk 11:9, 10

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mt 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.' Then they will answer and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?' He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

Under the legislation, donors aged 70½ or older can contribute up to $100,000 from their IRA's directly to qualified charities without having to pay income taxes on the money.

- The donor transfer up to $100,000 directly from their IRA to one or more qualified charities. This opportunity applies only to IRA's and no other types of retirement plans.
- The donor does not receive any goods or services in return for the rollover gift in order to qualify for tax-free treatment.
- The gift/check must be dated on or before December 31, 2023 to qualify this year.
- The gift needs to be sent directly to the charitable organization which also has to be the payee for the gift.
- The official name and address to use for the receiver of the donation is: St. John the Evangelist Church
2400 W Ridge Road
Rochester, NY 14626
