In the Footsteps of St John

A journey of exploration and reflection upon the treasure who is the patron of our parish church, St John the Evangelist.

"Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?" - Lk 18:7-8

Welcome!

If you are new in the parish, we invite you to become a member of our faith community where we come together to worship the Lord and celebrate the Eucharist. We want to get to know you and recognize there are some challenges in doing so during Covid-19, however, if you can introduce yourself after Mass, we will be grateful. Please know that your prayers, your presence, and support of our beloved St. John's Church are appreciated. Please call or e-mail the Parish Office for registration assistance. You will find contact information on the front cover of the bulletin.

Faith in Action— How Are We Burying the Dead?

More of us are facing these tasks as our family members age and die. This is something most of us do not want to think about. Some of us are helped by parents who are thoughtful and organized, while others must deal with unexpected deaths or chaos left behind by loved ones. Even people who keep fairly good records can leave challenges for their survivors. I have encountered many of these experiences in my many years as a priest and more profoundly here at our beloved St. John's Church. Here are my personal reflections that can help us prepare for the unexpected. Share your idea or two with me and also talk about it in your family as you read this article; it will be really helpful to me and for all.

While we may no longer have to physically bury our dead, we are called to show respect for the body even though deceased. As Catholics, we believe in the dignity of the human person and in the resurrection of the body, "caring for the body grows out of reverence and concern for the person whom the church now recommends to the care of God," according to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops.

So not only are we called to comply with the guidelines of the Catholic Church for burying our dead, we are expected to help the dying receive God's grace during the last minutes of life. We should also support those who have suffered the loss to help them bear their pain a little easier. Consider these end-of-life situations, and decide which activity helps in a given moment.

- Visit patients in hospice and arrange for them to receive the Sacrament of the Sick or the Eucharist, if appropriate. Call your parish priest or let a church member call for a priest. Where possible, plan one's funeral ahead of death, with the selection of songs and Biblical passages for the readings, as clergy of our diocese are encouraged to do.
- If death occurs, contact a funeral home concerning burial or cremation arrangements; the parish will work through the funeral home. The church recommends that cremation be interred in a dignified manner and not kept in the home.
- Contact the Social Security Administration and any other government agencies or benefit program that may be making payments to the deceased.
- Family should make sure the deceased has a plot or burial place in which to rest in peace.
- Attend wakes, funerals, and funeral dinners when possible to offer support to the bereaved family.
- Take care of young children of families suffering from or anticipating a loss.
- Continue to visit the bereaved after the funeral flurry is over. Be present to offer help, bring a meal, or just be available to listen.
- Help widows or widowers handle the details of practical life that their loved one used to handle such as records of a business or personal assets.

We need to share our wishes with family members for them to know what we want when God calls us home.

God bless you.
Father Peter

Book of Remembrance

During the month of November, our community of faith remembers those who have gone before us into God's light by inscribing their names in the Book of Remembrance. We will place our Book of Remembrance near the Pascal Candle. Please write in this book the names of departed relatives and friends. Throughout November we will remember those listed in the book in our Masses.

Lanna Isabella Ferrer became a child of God through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism on Sunday, October 12, 2025. Deacon Elmer Smith baptized Lanna and we, as a faith community, pray Lanna will live in her baptism by continuing to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ all the days of her life with the love and faith-filled support of her parents, family, and godmother.

Help Bring Christ's Message

At Baptism, we are anointed with the same Chrism Oil that priests are anointed with at their ordination. With this anointing, all baptized Christians inherit the responsibility for evangelization. This means it is not only up to the clergy to lead souls to heaven, it's our job too!

"Love is never defeated."

Reflect

There is perhaps no more beautiful celebration than when parents bring their newborn child to the waters of baptism. Parents, godparents, family, and friends share in this sacrament with incomparable joy. For in baptism, we share in Christ's death and resurrection, and through the outward signs of water and oil, are made children of God and given the hope of eternal life with Him.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven, death is overcome, and life is victorious. We are called to be signs of hope to all people, especially those whose goodness, value, and dignity are undermined. As members of the Body of Christ, we carry this hope with us as we continue Jesus' mission on earth.

Sadly, there is a devastating absence of hope today. We see this most profoundly in a sweeping disregard for human life in its most vulnerable forms and stages. Abortion and assisted suicide are products of hopelessness and despair. Yet even amid the increasing attacks on human life, we know that the "storms that buffet us will never prevail, for we are firmly anchored in the hope born of grace, which enables us to live in Christ and to overcome sin, fear and death."¹

We have been entrusted with a message of hope for the woman who finds herself unexpectedly pregnant or for the man diagnosed with a terminal illness. At these challenging moments, we must bring God's presence, witnessing to His love, and inspiring a renewal of hope in those whose hearts are burdened. For "hope is born of love and based on the love springing from the pierced heart of Jesus upon the cross."² Confident of God's presence within us, may we share the Gospel of Life with those most in need of hope.

Reflection adapted from "Life: Our Sign of Hope" (respectlife.org/life-our-sign-of-hope).

The Feast of St. John Paul II

On October 21st, we celebrate the pope who inspired the world! Born Karol Wojtyla in Krakow, Pope John Paul II became the first-ever Polish pope. He came of age in the early 20th century and lived through both the Nazi and communist occupations of Poland. His resistance activities were cultural, operating an underground theater company and entering a secret seminary. Karol was ordained a priest in 1946 and later a bishop. He was elected pope in 1978. As pope, the interests that captured his heart as a young man continued—his pastoral concern for young people, his philosophical emphasis on the human person, and his devotion to Mary and to the mercy of God.

St. John Paul II, pray for us!

September 2025

Dr Fr Peter and St John the Evangelist Church,

On behalf of the students, families, faculty, and staff of Nazareth Elementary, we extend our heartfelt thanks for your incredible generosity. Your donation of school supplies was overwhelming in the best way! Because of your kindness we were able to host a two-day supply drop-in for families, ensuring each child began the year with the tools they need to learn with confidence and joy.

With the rising cost of supplies, your generosity lifted a real burden from many families. You provided not only notebooks, crayons, and pencils— but also peace of mind and hope for those who have chosen Nazareth Elementary for its strong academics and gospel-based values.

Your thoughtfulness is a shining example of Christ's love in action. As scripture reminds us, "And do not forget to do good and share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased." Hebrews 13:16.

We are truly blessed by your support and partnership.

With gratitude and joy,

Rhonda Neal, Principal

and Amy Rist, Development & Marketing Coordinator
